

As a media "consumer" in the United States, I strenuously call on the FCC to REJECT the requests for the removal of limitations on consolidated media ownership. At risk is all future hope for the maintenance of diversity and, by corollary, quality and fairness in the extremely important realm of PUBLIC communication opportunities. This is essential in our eroding DEMOCRACY.

Richard Rubin